MAY'S LANDING, N. J., May 20. - White Caps

have bobbed up in this vicinity again and promise to become troublesome. John Glaspey, a young man, came from the West re-aunt, Mrs. Norton Woodruff, near this village

the bern door, about three mones from Grapper'a head.

Re gars chase to the men and emptied his revolver after them. One of them exclaimed,

'Oh, my God! I'm saot." He excepted, however.

An *xamination of the borrowed gun next moraing showed that the load had been waterseaked.

Let night a promising colt, valued at $200,
the property of the Widow Woodruff, was posthed and died this morning.

aunt, Mrs. Norton Woodruff, near this village. He has become, for some unexplained reason, the object of the wrath of some persons styling themselves White Caps, and they have warned him to leave this part of the country and return to the West.

This warning he received a few days ago. Shortly after the warning had passed, the White Caps visited Mrs. Woodruff's barn at hight, cut leose the horses and turned them in the tages-yard. They then cut into sareds the 800 Dozen MEN'S WHITE MUSLIN SHIRTS, Linen Bosoms, night, cut loose the horses and turned them in the tamp-park. They then cut into saveds the cartains of a new carriage, and left, informing disappy that they would return on a certain might and so further dismance.

To be prepared for their maranding work the man torrowed a loaded gun from a neighbor, and taking besides his own seven-anooter, want to the bars and walled.

About midnight two men opened the barn door and proceeded to the stables, but when door mad proceeded to the stables, but when commanded by Glasper to stop they ran, thappy raised the gun an ipalled the trigger, but it missed fire. He then fired a shot from his levolver, and one of the men fired a suc-at him to return. The bullet was imbedded in the bern door, about three inches from Glas-per's head.
